Cobbleacre Park

Editor's Pick

Hevingham, Norfolk

Cobbleacre Park is a scenic campsite with fishing lakes in the heart of Norfolk. It is a serene location with various wildlife, and with the North Norfolk coastlines and the Norfolk Broads all within easy reach. A family owned and run business, each of the fishing lakes are named after the owner's grandchildren.

The site is ideal for families and for those who don't fish you can still enjoy picturesque walks. All pitches on site are fully serviced and there is a choice of grass or hardstanding. The on-site amenities include toilets and showers, a washing up area and chemical disposal. Further afield is the town of Aylsham with a few more shops.

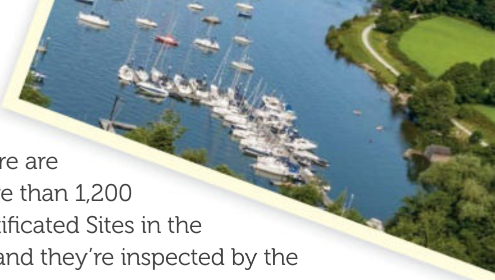
Membership of The Camping and Caravanning Club offers so much more than reduced fees on our network of Club Sites. We provide a gateway to a range of different camping experiences, many of them exclusive to members and at discounted prices.

CERTIFICATED SITES

Open only to members, Certificated Sites are privately run and your exclusive access to them is one of the great benefits of joining us. Each accepts a maximum of just 10 tents or five caravans and motorhomes.

While often quieter and more remote, some offer full facilities, even bars and restaurants. Others are truly unique locations, off the beaten track, on working farms or in National Parks, and have a quirky, back-to-basics charm all of their own.



There are more than 1,200 Certificated Sites in the UK and they're inspected by the Club every year. Pitch fees start at around £10 per night and if you've yet to join the Club, you can do so on arrival.

JOIN US IN THE EAST MIDLANDS

It would be tempting to overlook the East Midlands when you're choosing a destination for your next break. But what it lacks in showy star attractions, it more than makes up in a wealth of fascinating towns and cities and stunning scenery that rewards on every return.

Let's start with Stamford, Lincolnshire's Georgian gem, with its period drama looks and modern eateries. Head west across the tranquil Rutland Nature Reserve to explore rural Leicestershire and Bosworth Battlefield.

Swing north to Derbyshire and the Peak District is waiting, a walkers' paradise dotted with historic towns like Bakewell and Matlock as well as the majestic house and grounds of Chatsworth.

Whatever you're looking for from the East Midlands, the Club has a site that suits. You'll find a wide selection of Club Sites and a huge choice of smaller Certificated Sites.

JOIN US IN THE EAST OF ENGLAND

If your childhood holidays were whiled away against the backdrop of the Norfolk Broads, you'll need no convincing to rediscover the charms of eastern England. Yet the allure of these tranquil waterways is just one of the reasons to pitch up here.

Close by, you'll find the magnetic coastal towns of Great Yarmouth, Cromer and Sheringham. Nearby, the King's private residence of Sandringham sits on a magnificent estate, itself part of an area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Further inland to Cambridgeshire, the land may flatten but the curiosity rises, across the mysterious fens to a university city full of history and intrigue.

Nearby, our Club Site at St Neots is a hidden gem, on the banks of the River Ouse and with enough walking and cycling routes to keep the family entertained for days. It's just one of the options the Club provides in the region.

While London might always be its beating heart, there's a whole lot more to this region than the glitzy glamour and mesmerising majesty of England's capital.

To the south, Kent is widely lauded as the Garden of England, but beyond its verdant charms, you'll find a collection of beautiful Blue Flag beaches, spectacular castles, elegant stately homes and even big cat encounters.

The south east has miles of coastline to explore, dotted with quintessential seaside towns. The brighter lights of Brighton illuminate a thriving cultural scene.

The Club gives you a range of camping options to suit your style, from the serenity of the South Downs to hidden oases just a short train ride from the centre of London.
